

Hello friends of colors and brushes,

Always wanted to create a small, framed miniature art project?

Do you want to create your unique, holy portrait of your individual Warhammer 40.000 character? Warhammer 40.000 is always very iconic and combining it with traditional aspects of art history's iconography is tons of fun. In these two days you will build your own framed iconography and will learn tons about posing, conversion work and painting.

All material, tools and a miniature is provided by the teacher.
You just need to bring your own brushes and wet palettes.

This group masterclass coaching will have 3-5 students and is a perfect setup to work with individual coaching by Roman. Minimum number of students: 3 / Language: english

Main topics

- Learn art history about iconography
- Learn composition rules
- Learn to create a character with background and story / characterization
- Learn to make amazing conversion in context of the Warhammer 40.000 universe
- Learn to use a wide variety of materials for your conversion
- Learn about great posing
- Learn to build a small, framed diorama
- Learn to work with real gold leaf
- and more ...
