

Hello friends of colors and brushes,

Under Roman's guidance you will create your own inspired, abandoned car diorama.

Learn tips and tricks about composition, create realistic weathering effects and learn how to include nature's influence on your car wreck.

All material, tools and everything you need is provided by the teacher.

You just need to bring your own brushes, wet palettes and superglue.

This group coaching will have 3-5 students and is a perfect setup to work with individual coaching by Roman.
